Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: . . . in its nature, and is one owing to the plaintiff, or in the performance of which he is specially interested, ---that the corporation is liable in a civil action for the damages resulting to individuals by its neglect to perform its duty. 2 Dill Mun. Corp. (4th ed.) 980, and authorities cited. This statute imposes such a liability on the city of Topeka when it changes an established grade. If, in such an attempt, the city authorities fairly comply with all the obligations and requirements of the law with respect to the appraisal of damages, we agree with council for the city that in such an event the only remedy of the aggrieved property owner is by an appeal from the award. Notice to the owner is of the essence of all proceedings affecting property, and the vital complaint here is B I I that the notice given to Sells did not inform him p: : , : , y, u that the proposed change of the grade of the street ovrnernothon in front of his property was to be lowered, but did flsd Prim-so acquaint him with the fact that it was to be 5 slightly raised, and this was in effect a notice to him that his property would not be materially injured by such change. When the change was made, however, and the street made to conform thereto, it was found that the street in front of his buildings was lowered...
