Excerpt from The Defender, Vol. 1: Devoted to the Protection of American Labor and Industries, August, 1916 An instance: I would continue commerce so far as it is employed in bringing: us coffee, and I would discontinue it so far as it is employed in bringing us cotton goods. (From Fragments of Tariff Discussion. 1847.) The Abandonment of Protection Would Produce Want and Ruin. The abandonment of the Protective policy by the American Government must result in the increase of both useless labor and idleness, and so, in proportion, must produce want and ruin among our people. (From Fragments of Tariff Discussion. 1847.) The Famous Epigram. Abraham Lincoln's first speech on the Tariff question was short and to the point. He said that he did not pretend to be learned in political economy, but that he thought he knew enough to know that When an American paid twenty dollars for steel to an English manufacturer, America had the steel and England had the twenty dollars. But when he paid twenty dollars for steel to an American manufacturer,...
