Some minds have found it difficult to reconcile this declaration with what prophets wrote and angels sung. Before the advent of the Messiah, it was written, His name shall be called the Prince of Peace; and of the increase of his government and peace, there shall be no end. And the angelic song, announcing his advent, was in the same strain: Glory to God in the highest; and on earth, peace, good will towards men. Yet in giving an account of the effect of his own mission, he says, Think not that I am come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword. I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her...
