By David L Robbins

Simon & Schuster. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Broken Jewel, David L Robbins, "New York Times" bestselling author David Robbins, "the Homer of World War II" ("Kirkus Reviews"), catapults readers into a daring wartime rescue in this unforgettable new novel Locked in the notorious Los Banos Internment Camp southeast of Manila, Remy Tuck, his headstrong nineteen-year-old son Talbot, and their community of Allied internees battle starvation and sadistic punishments by the Imperial Japanese Army. Defying the guards at every turn, Tal watches beautiful Carmen through the window of her room above the camp, where she is trapped in her own prison, a sex slave for the Japanese army. Without speaking, they fall in love. As the tide of the war in the Pacific turns against their captors, the camp grows even more dangerous, and Remy and Tal enact a courageous plan to save their fellow prisoners and the woman Tal loves from certain execution.
