Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Creating an Industry The art of casting metals into previously prepared moulds has been known and practised since prehistoric times. We find the casting of metals referred to in many passages of the Bible. The casting of the golden calf by Aaron is probably the most prominent and best remembered. His work is described in the following words (Exodus, Chapter XXXIII): And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf. We also find that King Solomon s throne was adorned with two huge bronze lions and in many other instances there appear references to the casting of metals in Biblical times. The value of these statements in scientific research has been questioned, but there are many facts that point to their probability. Although the Egyptians practised the art of metal casting long before any other nation, the Greeks were undoubtedly the most skillful in this art during the ten centuries immediately preceding the beginning of the Christian Era. One of the seven wonders of the world is the bronze statue of the Sun God Helois in Rhodes, commonly known as The Colossus of Rhodes, made by a Greek named Chares, during the reign of Demetrius in the fourth century before Christ. This work occupied him for twelve years, and when finished stood 105 feet high, weighing 360 tons. It was destroyed ban earthquake in 224 B. C.
