When God sought a King for His people of old, He went to the fields to find him; A shepherd was he, with his crook and his lute And a following flock behind him. O love of the sheep, O joy of the lute, And the sling and the stone for battle; A shepherd was King, the giant was naught, And the enemy driven like cattle. When God looked to tell of His good will to men, And the Shepherd-King's son whom He gave them; To shepherds, made meek a-caring for sheep, He told of a Christ sent to save them. O love of the sheep, O watch in the night, And the glory, the message, the choir; Twas shepherds who saw their King in the straw, And returned with their hearts all on fire. When Christ thought to tell of His love to the world He said to the throng before him, The Good Shepherd giveth His life for the sheep- And away to the cross they bore Him. O love of the sheep, O blood sweat of prayer, O man on the cross, God-forsaken; A shepherd has gone to defend all alone The sheepfold by death overtaken.
