Almost since the time Christianity began, Christians have been labeled by that word. From then through today, it has forced a wedge between believers and non-believers. It is not so much a matter of who is right and who is wrong, so much as how these opinions are formed and finding ways to educate both sides to work together for mutual understanding. 1 Peter 3:8 says, Finally, all of you be like-minded [united in spirit], sympathetic, brotherly, kindhearted [courteous and compassionate toward each other as members of one household], and humble in spirit; That is what I truly hope to accomplish in this book. It is my sincere desire that whether you are a Christian or not, these pages will help us all to better understand each other and live on God's good Earth in harmony. Throughout the course of this book, I will try to remain objective in presenting both sides. I want to be straightforward with you right from the start. I am a Saved Christian. I am a Born Again Christian. So, obviously this book is written from that perspective. However, I am humble enough to see things from both points of view. You might just be surprised at some of the conclusions I draw toward the end of the book. The book is for everybody. Christians and non-Christians, believers and non-believers alike.
