Entrepreneurship -- Government policy -- United States.

Excerpt: . . . 11 age the relationship and the partnership, which is a true public-private partnership. I also speak to you today having been a woman business owner for ten years, and I bring that perspective to my role as Executive Director of this particular Womens Business Center. I was asked to address three specific issues. The first one was to evaluate the portfolio and the capacity to meet the needs. In my testimony, you will see that I have indicated that I think that it has been difficult for this particular program, the Womens Business Center Program, to keep pace with the quantity of growth of women business owners in the United States. So I think that although we are having significant outcomes, it has been difficult to keep pace with the exponential growth of women business owners domestically. The second area I was asked to address is the SBAs oversight efforts and distribution of resources. Quite frankly, this is the best relationship we have ever had...
