

We've Got Mail: A Modern English Paraphrase of the Letters of the New Testament

By Jr. Reverend Warren C Biebel

Healthy Life Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 3rd. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This new paraphrase is like a Reader's Digest version of the New Testament letters, capturing the original writers essential meaning in 21st Century language - easy to read and understand. Without chapters or verses, notes, references, cross references, theological or denominational slants, these letters flow much as they did when written nearly 2,000 years ago. Readers will be encouraged, perhaps even amazed, at just how practical, timeless, relevant, and alive these letters really are. Highly recommended for anyone seeking an introductory overview of the New Testament epistles. Rev. Biebel's masterful paraphrase brings the New Testament Letters to life for those who usually avoid the formal theological phraseology of many of the popular Bible translations. I applaud my fellow physicians who place Bibles in their waiting rooms and would recommend a volume of We've Got Mail as an additional consideration for patients in that setting. A person under the stress of medical or other concerns is likely to relate to and be comforted by this easy to read and understandable work. Its balance...
