Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .students actually live, thus securing unconscious imitation. (2) Removal of these boys and girls from their unfavorable environment into conditions that insure physical, mental, and moral growth and that establish permanent ideals. (3) Causing the students to really know the boys, to do personal work with them, and to begin a genuine study of Settlement problems. Monthly Missionary Meeting Monthly Missionary Meeting Turkey and Protestant Missions AT a time when the dailies and monthlies are full of political and news articles concerning the relation of Turkey to Bulgaria, Macedonia, and Syria, let the missionary aspects of the situation be brought before the students. As it cannot be assumed that these periodicals have been read by all, the first speaker may give a brief survey of the political factors in the case. Among the weeklies, perhaps The Outlook, Harper s Weekly, and The Nation furnish the best notes on the subject, as well as fuller articles. The Congregationalist for September 19 also has an authoritative discussion of the subject. Curtis s The Turk and His Lost Provinces, Chapter IX., is excellent. Let the second address state the religious antipathies existing between Turkey and the nationalities involved. The encyclopedia articles, Mohammedanism, Greek Church, Armenia, and Turkey, will furnish abundant information. Be careful to appoint to this task a student who will wholly omit preliminaries concerning these faiths, and who will emphasize salient points of difference and antipathy. Not more than ten minutes should be given to this part...
